Because India is layered

In the heritage heart of Ahmedabad, where carved havelis breathe centuries of stories, The House of MG stands like a living legacy. Once the grand mansion of textile magnate Mangaldas Girdhardas, today it's boutique chic stitched with soul.

Here, culture doesn't just hang on the walls, it's plated on the rooftop at Agashiye, poured in the leafy courtyard café, and mirrored in lotus pools and stained-glass windows. Every corner hums with craft, character, and charisma.

And the beauty? You don't just stay here, you live Ahmedabad. Heritage walks, textile galleries, artisanal shopping, tales tucked behind every doorway. This isn't a hotel. It's history strutting in boutique couture, waiting for you to slip right in.

Behind the scenes, Minar curates these moments into seamless itineraries, where a stay like this transforms from a booking into an immersion. We stitch the stories together, so your guests feel the rhythm of the city without missing a beat.

When Minar celebrates, it never plays it safe. Our Evening of Gratitude in New Delhi was equal parts elegance and electricity, a soirée where trust, partnerships, and India's place on the global luxury map came alive under starry skies.

The lush golf course backdrop swapped boardrooms for breezy lawns. Cocktails were curated, conversations flowed uncensored, and connections sparked with effortless style. Every detail felt designed with intent, every moment layered with warmth.

Gratitude Poured

It was an evening that reflected what Minar stands for, spanning aviation to private luxury journeys. Precision, creativity, and our signature instinct for turning hours into memories were written into the night.

This is how we approach everything we curate, be it a cocktail or a journey. Thoughtful planning, a dash of theatre, and that quiet assurance that your experience will always stand out.

Healing on a plate

Whoever said wellness couldn't be indulgent has never set foot in Prakriti Shakti. Here, luxury wears the glow of naturopathy, served like haute cuisine. Imagine a fireless kitchen where nature's gifts are left raw, pure, and bursting with life, transformed into plates that feel like edible art.

Think Kerala Sadya reimagined or guilt-free brownies that flirt with poetry. Every bite is colour, texture, and aroma coming together to whisper: wellness is the new luxury.

With chefs who master the alchemy of raw food, every meal turns into an act of love, for yourself and for the earth. And if you want to carry that magic home, the interactive kitchen invites you to learn, play, and indulge in conscious living.

At Minar, we love building these programs into journeys of transformation, adding the finesse that makes them feel personal and rare. A retreat like this becomes less of a stop, more of a signature moment in a traveller's story.

From Hospitality to Heritage: A Journey to Remember

"Our tour to India with Minar was truly unforgettable. The program was flawlessly designed, with incredible sightseeing, hotels, restaurants, and seamless transport. Every gesture, from personalized gifts to thoughtful planning, spoke volumes of Minar's professionalism and care. Each hotel inspection gave us confidence in recommending India to clients, while the curated dining and cultural moments added that extra magic."

The transport and drivers? Spot-on. The hospitality? Warm and genuine. The verdict? India dazzled. This glowing feedback captures what we take pride in — journeys stitched with detail, heart, and imagination.

Behind the scenes, it was the quiet orchestration of Swati, Bhanu, and Tim that ensured every journey carried the Minar signature. They were the invisible hands that made the visible sparkle, turning a good trip into an unforgettable story.
